A procession at the forces of all the powers from once formed and escorted the visitors to protect the legations, which, it is further asserted in Paris, will be allowed to remain at the Chinese capital pending a peace settlement. The Roosevelt said: main body of troops, it is also said, will retire to the neighborhood of Tien Tsin, leaving sufficient forces along the road to keep open the route and railroad between Pekin and Tien Tsin. Russia's attitude is interpreted here as meaning that she will withdraw her troops outside the walls of Pekin, but not necessarily a great distance from that city.

Will Appoint a Commission Washington, Sept. 8,-11 seems to be regarded as highly probable in official circles that when the time arrives for the actual negotiations looking to a setlement with China, this government will appoint a commission for that purpose, rather than place the negotiations in the hands of a single individual. As to the numerical strength of such a commission. the general impression seems to be that it would not consist of more than five members, more likely three, and possibly of only two. Radical Change in Ch'na's Future. Shanghai, Sept. 8.—It is reported that the American minister approves inviting Li Hang Chang to Pekin to negotiate on behalf of Chion. Paris, Sept. 8.—Active negotiations are in progress looking to some compromise arrangement with Russia reprofiling the position she has us an accordance of the profession of the people. It showed the spirit of the people. It showed they had not forgoiten the lesson taught in the great contest of the first and we won't contract now. The issues are the lesson arithmetical properties and matienal honor. And the American people must give but a great contest of the people in the great war.

Roosevelt said:

The issue of the campaign is contained in that placerd: "Let well enough alone."
Old man Well Enough is old man Good Enough, and it is beat to let him alone, we have been doing well year by year, and are doing better. Let the American people have the good sense in keep in office the man under whose administration we have achieved our present property. This is more than a mere party contest. We appeal to all the old school democrats because we can trust the old school democrate because we can trust the old school democrate because we can trust the old school democrate of fard money and expension. We appeal not only to all good republicans, but to all good democrate and all good Americans to stand with us.
